Serve Beef in Savory Gravy

For chilly November days, plan foods that will whet the appetite and satisfy imaginations. As family members come trooping into the kitchen from the cold outdoors, delight them with the fragrance of tempting foods cooking on the range.

Robust and tasty... beef in savory sauce is the perfect fare for this time of year. Treat your family tonight to this delicious main dish made with strips of thinly sliced round steak slowly simmered in canned beef gravy. For extra richness, stir in sour cream just before serving with hot buttered noodles.

Round out this hearty fall dinner menu with a crisp green salad... highlighted with slices of avocado. For dessert... canned fruit and spice cookies.

Light up the candles and enjoy the warmth of good food and a happy home.

Beef in Savory Sauce
1 1/2 pounds thinly sliced round steak
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
1 medium onion, sliced
1 can (4 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained
2 tablespoons shortening
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) beef gravy
1/2 cup sour cream
Hot buttered noodles
Cut steak into thin strips; dust with mixture of flour, paprika, salt, and pepper. In skillet, brown meat, onion, and mushrooms in shortening. Add beef gravy. Cover; cook over low heat about 1 1/2 hours. (If desired, cook uncovered during last 15 minutes to thicken gravy.) Stir now and then. Blend in sour cream, just before serving. Serve with buttered noodles. Serves 4-6.

Students Slate Convention

In honor of Bill of Rights Week, students at Torrance's new Madison Elementary School Tuesday held a constitutional convention to draw up rules and regulations for their own school.

Imitating the founding fathers of 1787, the Madison students of 1960 met, with representatives of each room voting on a proposed constitution.

After long discussion, youngsters decided that an executive branch, composed of the elected officers, and a legislative branch, composed of the student council, would be sufficient. The judicial part of the government, they decided, would be left largely in the hands of the principal and teachers.

Members of the Madison Constitution Convention were Dave Rance, Bob Weyant, Randy Quarry, Marina Young, Dale Braithwaite, Linda McClung, Janet Kuyper, Timothy Doty, Richard Schwartz, Linda Jackson, Barbara Stout, Gary Melligan, Ronnie Moad, and Jeff Osborn.

Denny Myren was chairman and Alan Gayda acted as speaker of the convention.
